

THE REPORTER

Thursday, September 12, 1996

IN THE Bit Stream

Web site developers have shown no sign of slowing down in finding every conceivable type of site that has something to do with the entertainment industry.

Among the latest:

- World Wide Stars (world-stars.com) — a site that displays the resumé and photos of actors for a fee, with plans to soon offer real-time auditions.